Servia is learning the Roosevelt lesson that to have honorable peace a country must be prepared for war.

St. Albans aldermen resign when they can't have their own way. It would be nice in some instances if alderman resigned before they had their own way.

Two hunting accidents already in Vermont, although not attended by fatal results, are sufficient warning to the hunters who will rush for the haunts of the deer on October 26.

The Barre Times says that probably the Herald's views upon the decadence of "legislative sprees" are distorted, and then proceeds to agree with them in every detail. The compliment is duly ap preciated.—Rutland Herald.

LIBRARY GROWTH IN VERMONT.

It is impossible, of course, to ascerin Vermont, but one is able to conjecture, basing his computation on single dea, as a whole, by the numerical in-crease of public libraries and by the de- guessing wrong.—Morrisville Messenger, gree of appreciation which the institutions seem to awaken. Fleetwood's Services to Vermont.

With the opening of the legislature, this week, the Hon. Frederick G. Fleet wood of Morrisville, retired from a service of six years in the office of secretary of state. In retiring, his action was voluntary, as he announced, last year, that he would not be a candidate for re-election, and it to his control of the control of for re-election, and it is his intention tain the results of the library movement to give his entire time to a law practice constantly growing. H. G. Thomas, fish and game commissioner, recommends in his report which has just been made public the lengthen ing of the deer season. He says, "The State is well stocked with deer, corroborated by correspondence, also by the large number legally killed during the open season of 1907, and the large number illegally killed. been in jeopardy, but saved through the caution of other hunters waiting to see if what they supposed to be a deer had antlers, when to their surprise another hunter came into view. For this one reason the law is a protection to human life. Eight out of ten illegally shot and killed by dogs are does. Tak ing into consideration the above facts it would be better to amend the present law by making a longer open sea-son and probably lessen the danger to uman life."

The open season for deer this year starts at midnight on October 25. will be interesting in this connection to learn the number killed during the six days in 1907. The total was 991 with a gross weight of 194,333 pounds or average weight of 196 pounds. In 1900, 634 were killed weighing a gross of 127,193 pounds making the average

The annual meeting of the directors of the Montpelier Country club was old at the club house Saturday evening the directors' meeting being preceded by a stockholders meeting at which the reports of the officers for 1907 and 1908 showed those periods to be the most successful in the history of the club. The old board of directors was selected with the exception of C. M. Heaton, removed to Topeka, and J. E. Goodenough was elected to fill his place. The directors stand as follows: H. M. Cutler, B. B. The girls especially will like these. The window is on the east side of the church beside the window which was at the crected there years ago by the children to the memory of Charles Dewey, hus-band of Mrs. Dewey. It is nearer the front of the church than Mr. Dewey' and is almost opposite the seat in which the deceased occupied during the time she went to Christ church. It is expected now that the "Record" which has been published by Montpelie high school will be revived but this time it will be a school paper conduct-ed by the grades as well as by the high school which it is believed will give better satisfaction. The faculty have taken hold of the matter and wil look after it although the beard of managers will be selected from the high school and grades and each grade as well as the high school will probably have a representative. It is thought that by laving the grades connected the paper then will be more interest in it. The paper died about a year ago from lack of enthusiasm.
